

Our 19th Annual Halloween Howl was a HUGE success!

It was a perfect day and we had so many new folks come to this fun event. We had so many contestants that in our opinion they were all winners. Thanks to Larry Vogel of My Edmonds News who spent the day with us, we have great memories. Here is the link to the article: <https://myedmondsnews.com/2024/10/costumed-canine-contestants-compete-for-top-honors-at-halloween-howl/> and thank you Larry!

We made well over $1,000 and that paid for our new Bulletin Board. We want to provide a HUGE thank you former Board Member Brian Albright and Yappie Club Member Sandy McDonald of McDonald McGarry Insurance as being event sponsors and giving us $350 and $300 (respectively) to buy gift cards. We want to thank “All the Best” for their generous donation to help with our supplying our “winning baskets”. We would like to thank our vendors Shay from “Hastler’s Hat Designs” and Danita from “Dmarie Doggie Boutique” who both had successful days. We also want to thank former Board Member Glenda Konkol for always showing up to help make the gift baskets and work the event.

Special thanks to for Edmonds Animal Control’s Officer Jessica and the City should be thankful as this year O.L.A.E. paid for 10 new licenses of recently transplanted dogs into Edmonds.

Most importantly, we want to thank the following sponsors for their generous donations: Canario Gelato Caffè, Crucible Brewery of Everett, Brian Albright, Waterfront Coffee, McDonald McGarry Insurance, Jolene Otter from Quilts of the Heart, Blue Collar Dog House, Gregg Arnold and Gallaghers where you brew. We look forward for next year's 20th Annual event and contact us OffLeashEdmondsArea@gmail.com for details.

Yippe for Yappie

We received to large donations this year and one from Flip, the Kilt Guy who was honoring the passing of his dog, Sydney. He sent us a picture of the beautiful black dog and wanted to honor her by saying "Sydney, well respected by dogs and people alike. The other generous donation came from Bob Gould and his dogs Gunter, Moon, Dude and Kit. Woof!

Happy 20th Anniversary!

We had our Annual Meeting and we will still be moving forward as stewards to the Dog Park for now two decades! It is unbelievable how time flies and all the wonderful people and volunteers we have met who have helped us along the way.
